

Developing Quality Care for Young Children

By Nettie and Paul Becker

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|-----------------------|
| Foreword ix Rebecca Shahmoon-Shanok | |
| About the Authors | xiii |
| Authors' Note | xv |
| Acknowledgments | xvii |
| Prologue to a Dream That Came to Be | xix |
| Introduction The Critical Need for Quality Early Child Care | xxvii xxvii |
| 1. The Little House on Village Avenue: What Makes a Good Child Care Center | 1 |
| Quality Care Is Not Just Day Care: How a Good Early Child Care Program Prepares Children for Life | 3 |
| The Toddler Classroom: Where a Skilled Child Care Professional Can Open Up the World to Children | 6 |
| Translating Principles Into Practice in a Good Child Care Program | 9 |
| Daily Separation: The Preschool Classroom as an Extension of Home | 9 |
| The Emotional Connection Between Caregiver and Child | 10 |
| Reading Children's Cues | 11 |
| Encouraging Children to Communicate Thoughts | 12 |
| Each Child Is Different and Provision Must Be Made for These Differences | 17 |
| High-Quality Child Care: Some Other Basics | 20 |
| The Support Services Offered to Children and Their Families | 22 |
| Maintaining a High-Quality Staff in the Face of Serious Obstacles in the Profession | 23 |

| | |
|---|-----------|
| 2. The First Task of Early Child Care: Building a Trusting Relationship Between Caregiver, Child, and Family | 30 |
| Attachment, the First Basic Need of All Children | 33 |
| Creating a Stimulating and Nurturing Atmosphere in the Classroom | 36 |
| How Can a Teacher Handle Aggression in Children? | 38 |
| Flexibility and the Adult-Child Relationship: | |
| Why Rules and Schedules Need to Be Adapted | 40 |
| Tuning in to Susan | 40 |
| Building Human Relationships in Every Classroom | 42 |
| Hugging a Child Expresses What Words Often Cannot | 46 |
| The Underlying Class Theme: We Are All People and I Am Somebody | 47 |
| Making Parents Welcome: An Essential Component of the Relationship Between Caregiver and Child | 48 |
| Establishing the Parent-School Link Right From the Beginning | 48 |
| Constant Communication Between Parent and School | 49 |
| Relationship With Parents Must Be a Relationship Among Equals | 51 |
| But What If a Parent's Behavior Is Harmful to the Child? | 53 |
| Getting the School's Message Across | 54 |
| | |
| 3. The Second Task: Developing Wholesome Peer Relationships Among Children | 57 |
| Why Building Peer Relationships Is a Necessity Among Children | 59 |
| The Stages of Play | 60 |
| Imitation, the First Form of Interaction | 61 |
| Reciprocal Symbolic Interactive Play | 62 |
| Engaging in Games With Rules | 66 |
| Using Play to Encourage Creative Thinking | 66 |
| Teaching Children to Resolve Conflicts: An Essential Task of Early Childhood Educators | 69 |
| | |
| 4. The Role of Curriculum and Staff Development in Early Child Care | 74 |
| The Importance of a Well-Planned, Appropriate Curriculum | 75 |
| Building the Important S-A-Ts in Children: | |
| Separation, Autonomy, Trust | 76 |
| Learning by Hands-On Experience | 77 |
| Staff Development Is an Ongoing Process | 78 |
| Some Principles of Inservice Training | 79 |
| | |
| 5. The School as a Reflection of Our Diverse Heritage | 85 |
| Diversity as a Natural Part of the Curriculum | 89 |
| Bringing the Children's Languages Into the Classroom | 90 |
| Using Holidays to Celebrate Cultural Diversity | 92 |
| Foods, Families, and Culture | 92 |
| Working With Families of Different Cultural Preferences | 94 |
| Handling Ethnic Stereotypes Among Children | 95 |
| Cultural Diversity and Differing Expectations | 97 |
| Working With Children of Different Cultural Backgrounds: Some Helpful Hints | 99 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| 6. High-Quality Child Care as a Learning Experience | 102 |
| Learning as a Natural Process | 106 |
| A Child and a Butterfly | 108 |
| Play Is the Work of the Child | 110 |
| School Success Means the Three Rs... and Much More | 112 |
| Writing a Class Story | 116 |
| The Learning Centers | 117 |
| The Daily Schedule | 118 |
| Planning for the Unforeseen | 122 |
| All the Things They Were Learning | 124 |
| | |
| Epilogue | 131 |
| | |
| Appendix A: Rosa Lee Young Curriculum Outline | 133 |
| | |
| Appendix B: Developmentally Appropriate Practice in Early Childhood Programs Serving Children from Birth Through Age 8 (National Association for the Education of Young Children) | 143 |
| | |
| Appendix C: | 151 |
| Reggio Emilia and the Hundred Languages of Children | 151 |
| The Nine Basic Principles of Reggio Emilia | 153 |
| | |
| Notes | 155 |
| | |
| Index | 161 |

Visit the website at www.childcareforchildren.com

To purchase the book, visit our publisher Corwin Press: www.corwinpress.com

Email the authors, Nettie & Paul Becker: careforyoungchildren@verizon.net